FROM THE PRESIDENT

Has there ever been a time to be more proud of The University of Alabama? This is indeed a legendary era when student enrollment, national acclaim, academic achievement and athletic excellence all unite to spotlight the Capstone as one of the best all-around universities in the country. In turn, the National Alumni Association continues to be the best and most loyal collection of alumni and friends of any university in the nation.

On behalf of the Office of Alumni Affairs and the NAA executive committee, please allow me to extend a heartfelt thank you for your kind generosity, involvement and financial sponsorship. Make no mistake: As an ardent supporter of the NAA, you are a noteworthy part of the success of the University and the Association. This 2015–2016 Honor Roll Booklet serves as a testament to all of you who have graciously enlisted memberships and/or submitted donations of various sizes. No gift is too small. With state-funded appropriations being only a small percentage of what they once were, current and future scholarships are mostly dependent on your willingness to help.

As you thumb through this booklet, the first few pages will list the scholarship recipients funded by the National Alumni Association. The next pages list the donors that help make these scholarships possible. It really is a team effort, and the challenge remains. Your continued support will be the main catalyst allowing future students to attend our outstanding institution.

Please allow me to leave you with a few numbers you should know:

- 33,000 active members in the NAA
- 110 local chapters across the country
- currently $5 million in annual scholarships
- 2,500 full or partial scholarships awarded this year
- 604 of the 2,500 were Alumni Heritage or Alumni Scholar Award recipients
- 23 newly endowed scholarships
- $41 million scholarship corpus
- $3 million operating budget

The alumni office staff works extremely hard to manage all of the elements of our nationwide alumni organization, and these statistics attest to their efforts. Meanwhile, I look forward to my new term as president, and I encourage you to reach out to me with any questions, ideas or concerns.

Thank you and Roll Tide,

2016–2017 president, National Alumni Association

UA MEANS FAMILY. “Through the Capstone, people in all corners of the country and the world are forever linked as a part of our Crimson Tide family. We are fortunate to have such a strong alumni association that allows alumni, friends and fans to stay connected, especially after our collegiate tenure has ended. It’s the passion of this family—of you—that allows the Association to bring more students into the University and into the Alabama family.”

—L. Alex Smith, National Alumni Association president

Face of CREATIVITY

CORNELIUS CARTER

UA MEANS CREATIVITY. “Creativity in its simplistic form means exploring ideas. I have been most fortunate throughout my tenure to explore my creativity with amazing colleagues, students and a very supportive administration. Creativity and collaboration are fierce partners. In this capacity, I have collaborated with the College of Engineering, School of Music, creative writing program, art department and Department of Theatre and Dance. These partnerships have allowed me to see, create and explore a world of endless possibilities and allow our alumni to work with professional companies, such as the Radio City Rockettes, prestigious ballet and modern companies, Disney productions, national Broadway tours and cruise lines.”

Face of COMMITMENT

DR. KATHRYN OTHS

UA MEANS COMMITMENT. “Not being from here, I never imagined when I took my first academic job at UA in 1990 how much I would come to cherish the state of Alabama and, most of all, its flagship University—all of it: the institution, its administration, staff, faculty and students... and the sports, too. Despite offers, I never considered leaving. There is no greater satisfaction than—sometimes at the point of near desperation—to continue to pour my heart into helping a struggling student, and then see that student attain great achievements in life.”

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Each year, as we make preparations to produce this Honor Roll, I am asked to review the list of names of contributors who will be included in the publication. Some might find this task tedious; I find it inspirational.

The following list is more than just a compilation of names. These names represent individuals, families and family legacies, each expressing an unyielding commitment and dedication to the lasting traditions of The University of Alabama and her National Alumni Association.

The financial contributions recognized in the Honor Roll amount to so much more than a number. Each contribution itemized finds its way into the lives of prospective and current students, their families and the countless UA alumni around the world. Whether it's an NAA staff member customizing a campus tour for a prospective student or awarding a scholarship to a current student, your contribution made it possible.

When thousands of faithful alumni and friends travel to campus for homecoming, your support makes so many of the activities and traditions they enjoy possible. When someone opens the next issue of Alabama Alumni Magazine, you have helped make that happen. Most importantly, such generous support allows the NAA to provide substantial scholarship assistance and literally transform thousands of young lives. Without your financial support, we simply would not be able to continue all of the important programs and services offered by the National Alumni Association. To learn more about what is taking place at your NAA, please visit our website at alumni.ua.edu.

I consider it a privilege to serve as your director. Thank you for allowing us to carry out the important mission of the National Alumni Association. Member contributions for 2015 totaled $2,271,425, and the following list recognizes individuals who gave unrestricted donations to the Alumni Fund in the amount of $100 or more during the year.

Again, thank you for your continued generous support.

Best wishes and Roll Tide!

Calvin J. Brown, BS '81, MA '83
Director of Alumni Affairs

UA MEANS RELATIONSHIPS. “The University of Alabama means relationships. It’s a place where people can come together and form lasting connections that will be carried for a lifetime, and the National Alumni Association is built on and prides itself in forming and cultivating these friendships. Each year, the generosity of our alumni allows a new generation of students to attend the Capstone and form these ties, bonds and memories.”

Face of PRIDE

BEN SMITH

UA MEANS PRIDE. “To me, The University of Alabama is home, which may sound odd since I’m out-of-state and in some senses, out-of-country. My family traveled a lot and I spent most of my childhood overseas, but I was always aware that I wasn’t truly home. It wasn’t until I took my first visit to Tuscaloosa that I finally knew I had been right all along. It also means pride. The Alabama gymnastics team gave me a position with team video, allowing me to promote one of our most elite teams, and I am proud to call UA my home.”

Face of LEADERSHIP

DR. STUART BELL

UA MEANS LEADERSHIP. “Because of the challenges facing our world that require dedicated leadership to step up and implement necessary and revolutionary change for this and future societies, UA places a high priority on our responsibility to develop the leaders of tomorrow today. In my first several months, as I’ve visited with many corporations and individuals, it is clear that the University is known for creating exceptional future leaders of businesses, communities and our world. We have many excellent programs on campus that focus on developing our students through diverse engagement opportunities and involvement with real-world exposure. We believe that young people are our greatest asset for local and global innovation, and we are excited about our opportunity to invest in them, both for their personal development and for the greater good.”

Face of SCHOLARSHIP

WHITNEY SMITH

UA MEANS SCHOLARSHIP. “Receiving an alumni Crimson Scholarship was a dream come true and opened up doors in my life that were previously closed because of monetary strains. I was able to attend a wonderful university and not have to worry about financing for tuition, housing or books. I was given an opportunity to fall in love with the Capstone and create lasting memories during my four years of undergraduate education. I cannot think of a better place to spend my college career and am so blessed that I will soon have the privilege of saying I am an alumna of the The University of Alabama.”

Face of CHAMPIONS

O.J. HOWARD

UA MEANS CHAMPIONS. “The University of Alabama has meant so much to me. Ever since I was a kid I wanted to come to UA, and being here now has really presented me with opportunities I never expected. Coach Saban and his staff have molded me into a champion on the field, and being a part of the great academic culture off the field at Alabama has only added to my achievements. With the help of our staff, I have been able to prosper at UA. I couldn't have asked for a better experience, and I will always be proud to hold a degree from Alabama once I graduate next year.”

Face of INNOVATION

KAYLIE CROSBY

UA MEANS INNOVATION. “The University of Alabama cultivates innovation through the support of cutting edge student projects like EcoCAR 3. Industry partnerships, research and development opportunities and state-of-the-art facilities are available to organizations like the UA EcoCAR 3 Team, a group rebuilding a 2016 Chevrolet Camaro into a plug-in hybrid electric vehicle. Innovation is essential to the UA team’s vision of being a leading stimulus in the development of advanced propulsion and alternative fuel technologies amongst North American academic institutions.”

Face of ACCOMPLISHMENT

DR. ROBERT E. WITT

UA MEANS ACCOMPLISHMENT. “The opportunity to serve with the extraordinary team that made The University of Alabama a university of choice for the best and brightest was the most rewarding period in my four decades in higher education. What our team accomplished transformed The University of Alabama. And that transformation will endure. I will never forget the students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends of The University of Alabama who were part of that special journey.”

A smiling man with short dark hair, wearing a brown herringbone blazer over a light blue checkered shirt and dark blue trousers, sits at a wooden desk. He is looking directly at the camera. The desk in front of him has a computer monitor, a keyboard, a mouse, a red folder, and a nameplate that reads "BUD... 2015-2018". In the background, there are red and white pennants and a bulletin board with photos and documents.

Face of DEDICATION

ELLIOT SPILLERS

UA MEANS DEDICATION. “It’s fair to characterize me as a determined individual, but my tenacity stems from a love for the University and a passion to empower people to make a positive impact in our campus community. It’s our responsibility to challenge the things we love and not be robbed of our true potential by complacency. I have found, through dialogue, that learning can humanize character, and differences can transform into essential tools for social change. Change will not come if we fail to be proactive and begin with the end in mind. Our University’s history is a testament to this fact. We are the change that we seek.”

Face of RESEARCH

SAM MUKKAMALA

UA MEANS RESEARCH. “UA is a place where learning beyond the classroom can flourish through research. Only so much can be learned from a textbook; the real application of knowledge and how well one can implement it comes from working in research. From my experience of working in molecular biology research and biological anthropology research, I have not only learned scientific knowledge and techniques beyond what I could imagine, but I also learned the importance of determination, perseverance and patience in the face of failure. Failure is a paralyzing fear that can extinguish a passion for learning, but research has taught me to fail successfully and work towards something bigger than myself.”

—Sam Mukkamala, senior biology major

Face of TRADITION

BIG AL

UA MEANS TRADITION. “Big Al is the face of The University of Alabama’s tradition that represents each and every one of us. From the youngest fan to the oldest alumnus, he is the reminder that takes you back to the first time you stepped on campus and to the last memory you have of the Crimson Tide. He is a true symbol of entertainment, comfort, love and pride that will never die or fade away.”

—Jennifer Thrasher, cheerleading/Big Al coordinator

WAYS TO GIVE

A gift to the Alumni Fund of The University of Alabama's National Alumni Association can come in many forms. It can be:

- a gift of cash
- a gift of stocks, bonds, real estate or other property (art, books, etc.)
- a corporate matching gift
- a gift through a will or living trust
- a charitable trust or other life income plan
- a named beneficiary in your retirement, insurance policy or certificate of deposit

You can also use the above options to create an endowment gift to the National Alumni Association in support of its scholarship program. Perhaps the most rewarding aspect of establishing an endowed scholarship fund is that it will allow you to directly accomplish your goals in giving while helping the University achieve its institutional initiatives through the NAA. The principal is invested in the UA System Pooled Endowment Fund for safe growth over time. The annual endowment income from this investment enables the Association to award scholarships to qualified recipients each year, according to the terms agreed upon by you and the association. Scholarship endowments may be established by individuals, businesses or alumni chapters, and gifts may be given over a period of five years. You can also add to your endowment beyond the minimum funding level through lifetime gifts and through a beneficiary designation in your estate plan.

Face of THE FUTURE

CLAIRE STEBBINS

UA IS THE FUTURE. “The University of Alabama has given me a platform. While at UA, I am able to use this platform to serve others, as well as develop my leadership skills and continually grow my education. I came to UA because I felt that I was valued by the University and that I had been invested in. Having been on campus for less than a year, I see that the investment extends far longer than four years. As I continue throughout my education and into my career, I am certain that The University of Alabama will continue to serve as my platform, and I hope to be able to raise the platform for the next students when the time comes.”

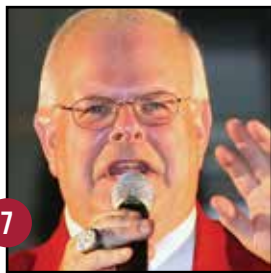

—Claire Stebbins, freshman journalism major
