Dedication of Denny Chimes

THE DEDICATION of the Denny Chimes occurred at the Chimes Tower at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. The rain that fell until the hour for the exercises reduced the number of people attending but there was a goodly audience gathered in front of the tower and the streets near by were lined with people in automobiles. The exercises were presided over by Governor Graves, who spoke of the pleasure it gave him as the chief executive of the state to be present on this interesting occasion, praising the movement that brought about the securing of the chimes and the man for whom they were named.

Dr. Geo. Lang delivered the invocation and Jerome Britchey spoke for the student body, having been the chairman of the student committee that raised the money for the Chimes, though it is well known that Britchey himself was the main factor in the movement. He received able assistance from Lewis Smith and Hugh Dowling and many students and members of the faculty. He told of the inception of the movement to purchase the chimes and how it had finally been brought to such fine completion.

THE W.S. HOOLE SPECIAL COLLECTIONS LIBRARY, THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

Denny Chimes is named for Dr. George H. Denny, president of the University from 1912 to 1936.

1929

When Denny took office in 1912, the University consisted of nine principle buildings and 625 students. Under his leadership, the campus grew to boast 23 major buildings, 25 fraternity and sorority houses and 5,000 students.
