Dear Alabama Traveler:

Sail the ancient trade routes of Phoenician, Roman and Moor mariners during this comprehensive itinerary and small ship cruise to the coastal jewels of the Iberian Peninsula, an area not often visited by Americans, during the best time of year.

This unique offering features the five-star M.V. TERE MOANA, relaunched in 2013 under new ownership following a complete multimillion-dollar refurbishment. A sophisticated and authentic small ship carrying only 90 passengers allows for port calls otherwise inaccessible to larger vessels, including an exclusive opportunity and highlight to cruise into the heart of Seville along Spain’s legendary Guadalquivir River.

En route from Lisbon to Barcelona, visit four UNESCO World Heritage sites and Portugal’s lesser-traveled Algarve region, and stand on Gibraltar’s “Top of the Rock” to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Visit the regal city of Granada. Call on two of the enchanting Balearic Islands—Ibiza and Palma de Mallorca. See the magnificent Alhambra Palace and the spectacular sights that inspired works by Picasso and Gaudí. Enjoy the melancholy rhythms of fado music and the joyful beat of flamenco. Lectures by onboard study leaders enlighten you with the history, legends and modern life of these dramatic cities and villages.

Join your fellow alumni for this outstanding program and great value! The combination of an exclusive itinerary, small ship and Early Booking Savings proved to be a quick sellout in 2013. I encourage you to make your plans early and reserve soon while space is still available. Early Booking Savings are only available through March 11, 2014.

Sincerely,

Ashley Clayton

Flourishing Cultures along Iberia’s Historic Trade Routes and the Age of Discovery

are showcased on this voyage to fortified medieval towns and modern cities that still hold the artistic and architectural treasures from the Moorish Period. Previous exposure to the Greeks and Romans and the Moors’ acceptance of both Jewish and Christian life allowed for the coexistence of cultural groups, which led to great leaps forward in algebra, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture. This blossoming of knowledge and ability was the impetus behind the Golden Age of Discovery, when ships sailed from these shores to the New World. It was those journeys, which brought the bounty back to Iberia, that created great wealth and established an aristocratic tradition of savoring the leisurely pace of Mediterranean life in the idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages that you will experience on this voyage.

Lisbon, Portugal

Lisbon’s rich cultural heritage is reflected in its well-preserved palaces, magnificent churches and impressive castle.

The idyllic Balearic Island of Ibiza, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is famous for its cove beaches, mesmerizing crystal-clear waters and high towering cliffs, and it is one of Europe’s oldest towns.
Known during the Classical Age as the Pillar of Hercules, the Rock of Gibraltar has stood as a symbol of Britain’s imperial might since 1713, when it was ceded by Spain.

Gibraltar, British Crown Colony
The southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules, marking the then boundary of the known world. Drive to the “Top of the Rock,” the 1400-foot-high limestone promontory guarding the Strait of Gibraltar that separates Europe and Africa. Observe the amusing antics of Gibraltar’s Barbary apes, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe. See the Atlas Mountains, the second pillar of Hercules, across the strait and the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael’s Cave.

Enjoy an afternoon at leisure to explore “The Rock” on your own.

Granada, Spain
Granada is scenically located atop three hills framed by the dramatic backdrop of the snow-clad Sierra Nevada Mountains. From here, monarchs of the Nasrid Dynasty ruled for 250 years over the last Muslim kingdom in Spain, leaving a priceless architectural legacy—the magnificent Alhambra, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Enjoy time at leisure to walk through its outer precincts, admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftsmen within and then stroll through its beautifully landscaped gardens.

Ibiza, Balearic Islands
Be on deck as we approach the Mediterranean island of Ibiza, a spectacular UNESCO World Heritage site not often visited by Americans. Visit the well-preserved, walled Old Town and tour the island’s Renaissance fortifications and the historic Las Salinas Reserve, where the Carthaginians began extracting salt from the sea over 2000 years ago.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands
The imposing citadel overlooking the harbor was converted into the Spanish Royal Palace of La Almudaina in the 13th century. See the magnificent sandstone Palma Cathedral, begun in 1230 and constructed over 300 years; it represents the fullest flowering of the Catalan Gothic style. Early 20th-century renovations to its interior by the famed architect Antoni Gaudí produced a uniquely harmonious blend of old and new.

This afternoon visit the famous Carthusian Monastery in Valldemossa, the former residence of composer Frédéric Chopin.

Barcelona
The lively and beautiful quarters of Barcelona’s Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic treasures of Dalí, Gaudí and Picasso. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman trading port.
The Five-Star M.V. TERE MOANA entered service in 2013 under new ownership following a multimillion-dollar refurbishment. This exclusively chartered, deluxe, 90-passenger vessel fits the profile of small ship cruising perfectly and can cruise into ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

Eight of the Five-Star, ocean-view, spacious accommodations have private verandas. Each Stateroom features a large picture window, private marble- and teak-appointed bathroom with shower, one queen bed or two twin beds, luxurious European linens and amenities, individual climate control, robes and cotton slippers, satellite television, minibar, safe and hair dryer. Complimentary welcome flowers and fruit are provided in each stateroom upon arrival.

The elegant L’Etoile dining room and La Veranda restaurant accommodate all guests at a single, unassigned seating, and an attentive staff serves international cuisine featuring fresh local ingredients. Early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and dinner are served daily. Enjoy indoor or outdoor dining in La Veranda for breakfast and lunch and a consulting two-star Michelin-rated chef culinary creation is offered nightly in L’Etoile at dinner. Complimentary room service and wellness and vegetarian meal options are available. Complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages are served throughout the cruise.

The inviting and spacious public areas are tastefully appointed and include a large lounge, where a program of enriching lectures is held, two bars, a comfortable library with computers, wireless Internet hotspots, spa, boutique and outdoor swimming pool.

The M.V. TERE MOANA’s English-speaking crew provides courteous, professional service and sails with an onboard physician. There is one crew member for every 1.5 guests. The ship has an elevator.
