Dear Alabama Traveler:

Join us for this exclusive, nine-day French sojourn in Provence and the Burgundy and Beaujolais wine regions au printemps (in springtime), the best time of year to visit, when almond and cherry blossoms bloom white and blush and the crimson poppies, colorful primrose and purple irises herald in a new season. Cruise for seven nights from Provençal Arles to historic Lyon along the fabled Rhône and Saône Rivers aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe AMADEUS PROVENCE, launched in 2017—one of the newest additions to the AMADEUS FLEET.

During your intimate small ship cruise, dock in the heart of port towns and visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the wonderfully preserved Roman Amphitheater in Arles, the medieval Papal Palace of Avignon and the Roman city of Orange. Tour the legendary 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune, famous for its intricate and colorful tiled roof, and picturesque Lyon, France's gastronomique gateway. Enjoy an excursion to the Beaujolais vineyards for a private tour, world-class piano concert and wine tasting at the Château Montmelas, guided by the châtelaine. Visit the Burgundy region for an exclusive tour of Château de Rully, a medieval fortress among the vineyards which has belonged to the family of your guide, Count de Ternay, since the 12th century.

A perennial favorite, this exclusive travel program is the quintessential Provençal experience and an excellent value featuring a comprehensive itinerary through the south of France when its abundant flora blooms back to life. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

TOUTES LES GLOIRES DE LA FRANCE

On the façade of the royal Palace of Versailles is the inscription “A Toutes les Gloires de la France.” In 1837, when King Louis-Philippe dedicated its galleries to “all the glories of France,” the most outstanding minds and figures of the arts, literature, science and politics of the time were in attendance—Victor Hugo, Honoré de Balzac, Alexandre Dumas, Eugène Delacroix—to celebrate the extraordinary contributions the French have made to the Western world.

Today, all the glories of France lie in wait for your discovery during this springtime sojourn—on medieval bridges spanning the Rhône, in abundant Burgundy vineyards and their stately châteaux, in the enchanting quarters of Lyon, in the Arles café that inspired Vincent van Gogh and in the preservation of Provence’s extraordinary Roman ruins, where great history and beauty have been intertwined for centuries. Experience firsthand the remarkable achievements in fine art, cuisine, fashion, architecture, literature, cinema and joie de vivre that have made France so influential across the globe.

Arles

Few places on Earth can match the distinctive joie de vivre of Arles. This archetypal Provençal city is home to several of the world’s most majestic Roman monuments, all designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit the magnificently restored 20,000-spectator Amphitheater, built in the first century B.C., and the 12th-century Église Saint-Trophime, a former cathedral known for its fascinating Last Judgment-themed portal, a superb example of Romanesque sculpture. Nearby, the subject of Vincent van Gogh’s 1888 painting, The Café Terrace at Night, is still open for business on the Place du Forum.

Avignon

The center of Western Christendom from 1309, when Pope Clement V moved the papal capital here until the Great Schism with Rome (1378), Avignon is a UNESCO World Heritage site and an enchanting ancient city built on the banks of the Rhône. On a walking tour, visit the grandiose Palais des Papes (Papal Palace), the largest château-fort built in Europe during the Gothic era and the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age. Walk to the splendid Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Doms, a hilltop park offering spectacular panoramic views of the Rhône Valley. At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of one of the finest surviving examples of medieval fortifications, the Pont Saint-Bénézet (Pont d’Avignon), the only bridge built across the Rhône during the Middle Ages.

Cover photo: Known to the ancient Romans as Arar, the Saône River flows peacefully through inviting medieval villages and verdant French countrysides.

The 12th-century Saint Bénézet was said to have laid the stones of the Pont d'Avignon in the 12th century.

Pont du Gard

Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Pont du Gard, an exquisitely built 2000-year-old Roman aqueduct that once supplied over nine million gallons of water daily to the city of Nîmes. This masterpiece of engineering was constructed of limestone cut to fit together seamlessly without mortar, using arches to support the weight.

Orange

Traverse the beautiful French countryside, passing springtime blooms and vibrantly hued stucco houses accented by blue shutters, en route to the Roman city of Orange and its awe-inspiring UNESCO World Heritage sites. Visit the well-preserved ancient Roman Theater, still hosting performances today, and see the Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century as a tribute to Augustus Caesar and a symbol of Roman imperial glory.

Tournon-sur-Rhône and Tain-l'Hermitage

Facing one another across the Rhône are the twin towns of Tournon-sur-Rhône, one of France's oldest medieval sites, and Tain-l'Hermitage, surrounded by the rolling, majestic vineyards and granite slopes of the Hermitage appellation.

Arles' Romanesque architecture reflects its history as a vital port on the Roman road from Italy to Spain.

Lyon

Beaujolais

From the lovely vineyards of Beaujolais, the "land of the golden stones," France's youngest and fruitiest wines are cultivated. Located along the banks of the Saône River, this internationally acclaimed wine region has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d'Or, Côte Châlonnaise and Mâconnais combined.

In the verdant heart of Beaujolais, visit the 10th-century Château de Montmelas. Châtelaine Delphine d'Harcourt will greet you upon arrival and guide your exclusive tour through her home.
